

Fire Fighter Recruitment

The Municipality of Crowsnest Pass is recruiting paid on call fire fighters to join our dynamic and positive team. Community orientated applicants committed to the wellbeing and the safety of the community are strongly encouraged to apply. Previous Fire Fighter training would be an asset, but is not required. Applicants must have a good attitude, team working skills, have the ability to follow direction and make effective decisions while reacting quickly and calmly in emergent situations.

We are looking for applicants that have the ability to support and project values compatible with the goals of the Municipal Fire Department.

Duties of on call fire fighters may include:

- Carry, lift and set up equipment on scene and for practices;
- Wearing and caring for PPE
- Crawling and carrying equipment up/down ladders and in confined spaces
- Must be willing to attend required training

The Municipality of Crowsnest Pass offers competitive training, wages and benefits.

Applications can be picked up at the Coleman Municipal Office or the Blairmore Fire Hall at 2141 – 127th Street downloaded from the attachment below.
